Public Notice

This is to inform that due to the unforeseen force majeure situation in the Middle-East and resultant non-availability of air connectivity, the booking of international mail of all categories to Bahrain, Israel, Kuwait, Morocco, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Turkey, and the UAE is temporarily suspended. The situation is being reviewed regularly and booking will be resumed as soon as flight connections establish.

Further, in case of articles which have already been booked for above countries and not yet dispatched from India, customers have the option to recall their articles by submitting an application to the booking post office.
